

store reg session, ask user for more info if needed, then create account